"The pastor of Sacred Heart Parish will determine whether or not the family is contributing to the parish "time, talent, and treasure" according to their means. Each school family is expected to have been practicing their Catholic faith and to have given evidence of attending Mass regularly by use of the parish envelopes. If they are doing so, the pastor will issue a statement certifying active membership in the parish entitling the family to special parish tuition rates (the parish subsidy)."

(Parish Advisory Council and Parish Advisory Finance Committee)

This "Certificate of Active Membership in Sacred Heart Co-Cathedral Parish" signed by the pastor, entitles the parish family to the special parish tuition rates (parish subsidy) for their own baptized Catholic children and only for the current school year. It also entitles special consideration to placement in SHGS.
